February 2nd was EMU's Rising Stars Vocal Competition. Thirteen P-CEP Choir members competed against other area high school singers. Cash prizes were awarded to the top 3 winners, along with an invitation to perform at EMU Honors Voice Recital, a possible EMU Voice Scholarship and a free EMU Voice Faculty Solo and Ensemble Workshop. Congratulations to P-CEP Choir Students Sammy Gharbia who took first place, Autumn Paul who won second place, Kylie Kwiatkowski for third place, and Niveen Desrosiers who was voted Audience Favorite! So proud of all of our brave soloists!

February 5th will be Collage Concerts for EVERY 8th Grader in P-CCS. Every Choir member will collaborate with Band, Orchestra, Art Students and Marching Band for two in-school performances at Salem for the 8th graders! These concerts will conclude with a fantastic finale of O Fortuna from Carl Orff's Carmina Burana with over 250 high school musicians!

On February 8th six P-CEP Choir Students will be performing solos at MSVMA District Solo and Ensemble at Pioneer High School. Students will sing classical repertoire for an adjudicator for comments and a rating. Best of luck, Rianna Nagaoka, Nick Hodges, Isabelle Stanton, Molly Bates, Olivia Mason and Pete Mascaro!

Join us for a dine and donate event on Thursday, February 12th at Poke Poke Sushi Unrolled (39713 Ford Road in Canton) between 11:30 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. Be sure to mention P-CEP Choir with your dine-in, take-out or pick up order, and 20% of the sale will be donated to the choir program.

On February 19th The Festival Singers will enjoy an afternoon of collaboration with Dr. Brandon Johnson and the EMU Choir. The choirs will share music in performance for each other, and workshop songs together with Dr. Johnson. The event will take place Wednesday, February 19th at 2:00 in Salem's Gloria Logan Auditorium

On February 28th P-CEP Park Players One-Act Play, The Dreamer opens! Please enjoy this world-premiere, written for the Park Players by Irish Playwright, Liam Finnegan! Mr. Finnegan will be present at all performances and will do a Playwright "Talk Back" during the 2nd half of the evening's show! Don't miss this magical story and once-in-a-lifetime experience!
